Best Male

Steven Hudson NC Music

Newcomer Steven is currently studying drum musicianship at Perth College but he has a huge talent for singing and acoustic guitar playing which he tries to showcase as often as possible. Stevens has showcased his work most recently at the Perth Students Union Unplugged gigs.

Jordan Differ HN Music

Jordan is currently in his second year of study at Perth College. He has a talent for hearing a song once and being able to play it songs and has shown a fantastic talent for song writing. Some of his influences include Mumford and Sons and the Axis of Awesome. Jordan also performs as part of duo Big Differ with fellow classmate Sean Priestly on drums.

Best Female

Cheryl Robertson HN Music

Right now Cheryl is primarily covering songs that stick in her brain in order to focus on her exceptional talent as a vocalist; she is currently collecting together all the ingredients to put an EP in the oven. Cheryl's distinctive tone is evocative of lazy summer evenings & freshly baked brownies (her favourites!). Her sound is heavily influenced by indie folk artists such as Laura Marling, Villagers, Bon Iver & The National.

Amy Rayner BA Music

Amy Rayner is a singer-songwriter from North East Fife. Her love of music began when she started learning to play the violin at the age of 8. In high school she decided to exchange her violin for a guitar which was one of the best decisions she has ever made. Amy has been studying Popular Music Performance at Perth College UHI. She plays weekly gigs in venues around St. Andrews and Perth including Mitchell's Deli & Cafe and The Bothy. As well as her own original material she has a set-list of over 200 cover songs and has played at various events and venues including parties and weddings

Best Band

Tailors HN Music

Tailors are a four piece indie-folk band from Scotland. The band formed in early 2012. With Morrigan on lead vocals, Ross on guitar and vocals, Joel on drums, and Mark on bass, our wide variety of musical interests come together in an interesting combination of folk and indie rock. Tailors' songs stand out with unique vocal harmonies and strong, catchy melodies.

The Lonely Whale are a Scottish band with roots reaching from Glasgow to Perth. Our sound could be described as a blend of Pop/Rock and Folk music but we love to push the boundaries with our music, using the acoustic guitar as a foundation to build upon with influences from artists ranging from the Beach Boys to the Smiths. With our debut single 'Have You Heard The News, My Dear?' having just been released, The Lonely Whale are ready to show everyone what we can do!

The Lonely Whale BA

Born in the summer of '09, The Age played local gigs, and practised regularly to form a tight sound and develop our musicality. After jumping between places to practice and places to play, we got an EP out that gave us some groundwork to put out there. Now, we write, we play and we aim to get a second and much more definitive EP out this year so we can start promoting ourselves to the bigger players. Thanks, for listening..
